

PRAYER LIST

I'm on it too, right after the sick,
the poor, the struggling refugees.
I'm always asking for help. For mercy.
For forgiveness and changes.
Does it take more people asking?
Does it take me asking for more?
Maybe if I write it down
I'll see what's lacking in my pleas.
After all, You made me a writer.

Is length a factor? Does it require a prescribed amount of time? Do You count how often I ask? Do You like repetition? Passion? Tears?

I need more help with my life, Lord,
and for the people in my life.
I need to learn more about love.
You tried to show us, but how do I make myself love someone unlovable? You do it every day. But You're God.

Time is nothing to You, my life a blink.
But such a long a wait for me.
I'm discouraged, Lord. Do You hear me?

Before the amen is over, I know--
I know You do. I know You care.

--Glenna Holloway

--Glenna Holloway